CatSU COEd students, faculty join virtual summer course program

by Caroline I. Vecilles

Four (4) students and one faculty of the Catanduanes State University, College of Education participated in this year's Local Culture Scientific & Technology Online Short Program 2022 (LOCUST) of the Sultan Agung Islamic University (UNISSULA) via Zoom Platform last November 21 to 25, 2022.

The delegates are composed of Joana Rose B. Toledo, Kharlos Miguel T. Bautista, Khirr Jonasen T. Talan, and Kristine Joy P. Trinidad for student-participants and Dr. Jose Z. Tria, the Director for Research and Development Services, for faculty-participant.

There were a total number of 16 online meetings completed by the participants from which they received E-certificate and One Credit Transcript, as well as the opportunity of networking with students from other countries.

The other faculty-supervisors who assisted the student-delegates from CatSU are Prof. Emlyn M. Lanon and Ms. Ena Marie M. Sarmiento. This program has been made possible through the initiatives of the Office of CIRCPDS Director, Ms. Zyra Mae T. Tumala and in coordination of the College of Education Dean, Dr. Maria Sheila R. Gregorio.

UNISSULA is an international partner-institution of CatSU and the LOCUST Program 2022 is intended to give opportunities for students to open their horizon about the use of technology in local culture, especially batik. The program is free and participants were given a chance to collaborate with students from different countries with various cultural backgrounds, to eventually open bigger opportunities in local culture industries.

CatSU Library Services participates in the 88th National Book Week Celebration

by Caroline I. Vecilles

In relation with the National Book Week Celebration, CatSU Library Services headed by its Supervisor, Ms. Jena T. Perez, prepared a series of contest which aimed to encourage and instill interest among the students the value of reading good books.

In her opening message, Ms. Perez emphasized that the event seeks to inculcate among the students that the library is an invaluable asset to achieve one's aspirations.

The week-long celebration with the theme "Basa. Bayan. Bukas" included events such as the Magazine/Book Face Contest and Photo Essay Contest; Special awards like Top Library Book Borrower, Early Bird user, Film Showing at the Little Theater, and the Library Amnesty Program. A book display at the Lobby featured the newly-acquired books, as well as those authored by notable Catandunganons including Pablo Tariman, Allan Popa, Emmanuel Barrameda, Dr. Lily P. Custodio, and former Sen. Kit Tatad.

Atty. Gregorio M. Sarmiento, the Chief Administrative Office

for Administration shared his inspirational message followed by the awarding of winners for the different activities.

Ms. Tetchie M. Mimay also gave her closing remarks in the culminating day of the 88th National Book Week. She thanked the students who participated in the event and her colleagues under the Library Services for their cooperation and help.

This year's National Book Week was celebrated from November 21-25 and is annually done by virtue of Proclamation No. 109 signed on Nov. 19, 1936 by then-President Manuel L. Quezon.

CatSU Youth Leaders attend the 9th Philippines I Transform! Young Leaders Convention

by Caroline I. Vecilles

The youth leaders of the Catanduanes State University (CatSU) led by Federated College Student Council (FCSC) President and Student Regent, Angelo Piolo M. Laynes, together with the student leaders of the recognized Student Body Organizations (SBO) attended the 9th Philippines I Transform! Young Leaders Convention at Teachers Camp in Baguio City on October 6-11, 2022.

Along with the student-leaders is Prof. John Cyrus B. Francis, the acting FCSC adviser and Director of Student Support Services, who was also invited as Staffer of the Staffership Academy of Youth Leadership and was also confirmed as Regent Staffer II Adult Prefect.

The annual gathering comes with the theme: A Decade of Action: Leading Amid Covid and the Better Normal. The primary goal is to influence and empower the youth and adult leaders to think, work, and act together to make them active stakeholders in the advocacy and localization of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

For this year, the convention centered on the impact of the pandemic in the attainment of the SDGs. It also presented opportunities as well as the significant ways on how the nation can build and become better with the active engagement of the youth in leading their communities toward the better normal.

A Testimonial of Appreciation was also presented to Catanduanes State University for the invaluable support that led to the success of the Ninth Philippines I Transform! Young Leaders Convention and for the commitment to the push for genuine community transformation through the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Youth Lead Philippines (YLP) is a non-profit, non-stock, and non-partisan national organization duly registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and Bureau of Internal Revenue, that is one of the founding members of the United Nations sustainable development solutions network youth in the country.

Exploring the Hong Kong University (HKU) Metaversity Campus, Dr. Azanza said that we need to shift in order to catch up with the rest of the world. He mentioned that even the medical courses have already been included by the HKU for the great shift.

HKU, which was founded in 1910, is rated by Quacquarelli Symonds as No. 22 in the whole world and No. 3 in Asia.

Dr. Azanza believes that this is a good Asian basis for university benchmarking.

In his facebook page, Dr. Azanza shared that like the University of the Philippines (UP), HKU is a government-funded university and offers Law, Medicine, Education, Business, Agriculture, Marine Science, Arts, Social Sciences.

"CatSU and UP have a lot to learn from (and share with) HKU in terms of improving its curricular offerings, teaching and learning methodologies, research and international linkages", Dr. Azanza said.

The training conference was a collaborative program through the office of the Philippine Climate Change Commission, in partnership with the Department of Interior and Local Government.

The five (5) days training schedule include sessions on Coaching Techniques for effective facilitation and Active Learning, Climate Change 101 & Top 10 Climate-induced Risks in PH, Situating LCCAP in CDP, Stakeholders Participation, Climate Change Projections and other Climate Change Information, Organizing Climate Change and Hazard Information, Scoping Potential Impacts of Climate Change & Hazards, Developing the Exposure Database, Climate and Disaster Risk Management, Discussion and Workshop on the emissions of different sectors such as Energy and Transport, Agriculture, Forestry, Waste, and Industry, and a lot more.

Preliminaries and Recap also include Planning, Prioritizing, Budgeting, Monitoring, Evaluating, Adjusting, and Modifying, and lastly the Climate Change Expenditure tagging. In closing, the Peoples Survival Fund and Ways Forward were also tackled.

It can be recalled that Dr. Azanza encouraged the CatSU community to work with him in pushing for the plans of making the institution a national university for Disaster Management and Climate Change, just like the Batangas State University that is a National University of Engineering programs in his message during the celebration of the 10th Charter University Anniversary of CatSU.

"Let's claim it because there is no other university in the Philippines nor in the whole world that can compete with CatSU. Based on our culture, when a disaster strikes we are very much prepared; we are, as people, resilient to all types of disasters, the Mayon Volcano eruption affecting us, earthquakes, potential troubles with tsunamis and the typhoons that may come every so often in the island," Dr. Azanza said.

"This training by the eLCCAP is indeed very timely as right now we are again planting a new seed, so the dream of becoming a university is something that has been there planned by our forebears, now it is our turn for the next generation, for the future of becoming a national university for Disaster Response and Climate Change, and that would greatly help in our efforts of putting CatSU in the world map" he added.

Adding highlights and meaning to the event were the active participation of the barangay officials of Calatagan Proper led by Hon. Antonio Reyes, Calatagan Tibang led by Epifanio Linan, and Cavinitan with Hon. Matthea T. Bautista. CatSU are always in constant collaboration in these three barangays and its officials especially in conducting GAD events.

During the program, Prof. Melinda V. Abichuela, GAD Officer-in-charge, presented the events prepared by their office for the 18-day campaign to end VAW.

Some of the activities include the 20-year Philippine VAW-Gains Quiz Bee, Painting Contest, Bicol Song Writing Contest, VAW-Free Photography Contest, Slogan and Poster Making Contest, which were made open to all bona fide CatSU Students, from both the Main and Panganiban Campuses.

The CatSU Central Women's Circle on another note, led the "Safe-Ca" Podcast Launching. In addition, a compilation of video messages from different personalities representing the women sector expressed their support for a safer environment in Catanduanes, hence the hashtag VAW-Free Catanduanes.

A conference dubbed as "Bridging the Silence on Gender Violence was also conducted on December 5, 2022 at the Accreditation. (See separate story on page_)

The 18-Day Campaign to End Violence against Women is observed in the Philippines every year from November 25 to December 12. The United Nations (UN) has defined violence against women (VA.W.) as "any act of gender-based violence that results in, or likely to result in, physical, sexual, or mental harm or suffering to women, including threats of such acts, coercion or arbitrary deprivation of liberty, whether occurring in public or private life." Its considered one of the Philippines' perennial social problems, which is why then-President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo signed Proclamation 1172, extending it to 18 days in 2006.

CatSU employee chosen to attend Bicolano Young Leaders Congress 2022

by Francis John B. Templonuevo

An employee of the university was chosen as one of the five (5) youth leaders in Catanduanes to attend the Bicolano Young Leaders Congress (BYLC) at Calabanga, Camarines Sur on December 16-18, 2022.

Mhar Ariz Marino of the College of Science will be joined by Gian Christian Tejerero, a criminology student from the Christian Polytechnic Institute of Catanduanes (CPIC). The other three student leaders are Ian Adrias, Ma. Nicole Trinidad, and Brecy Lee Trinidad of Pandan Schools of Arts and Trade (PSAT).

“The BYLC will be an exciting opportunity to meet other youth leaders in the Bicol Region and collaborate to meaningful projects in the near future. I am hoping that our participation in BYLC will convince the organizers to conduct the BYLC 2024 here in our island province,” Marino said.

As posted in their social media page, the BYLC as a youth leadership development opportunity aims to create a network of young active citizens in Bicol Region and foster collaborative governance and collective actions in addressing key issues in relation to social inclusion and equity, economic empowerment, and environmental sustainability.

With the theme, “Leading Beyond, Fighting Our Greater Purpose,” the BYLC will gather 36 outstanding Bicolano Young Leaders from the six provinces of Bicol Region. The event is spearheaded by three collaborative organizations – YSEALI Bicol Hub, JCI Naguena, and AYL BU with the support from the US Embassy of the Philippines and the Young Southeast Asian Leaders Initiative.

CatSU Debate Society to stage 'Sarimagyo' Debate Tournament annually

by Francis John B. Templonuevo

After earning praises from the academe, the CatSU Debate Society plans to hold the Sarimagyo Debate Tournament annually every first semester of the school year.

This proposal was disclosed by Francine Mae Tayo, Chancellor of CatSU Debate Society and one of the lead proponents of the tournament.

According to Tayo, she was thrilled by the words of gratitude after every staging, especially the debaters, who were very thankful because they found passion and experience debating on stage.

"Debating will always be a thrilling yet enjoyable experience that anyone will look forward to once they try speaking at the podium. There will always be a desire to return, do better, and be better. That's almost exactly what everyone who participated told me," Tayo said.

SARIMAGYO DEBATE TOURNAMENT 2022

The proposal of having the debate tournament took place in November 9, 2022, with the aim to introduce the art and purpose of debating that goes beyond the facade of argumentation and opposing standpoints and create an academic forum to exchange relevant solutions to society's problems at the provincial, national and international levels.

Ten days after, the CatSU Debate Society staged the elimination round on November 19, 2022 at Virac Town Center (VTC) Victor Hall.

"Six teams took part in the competition, and the winning teams progressed to the semi-finals along with a seventh team that had already advanced due to the forfeiture of its opponent team. The adjudication core consists of Doc. Maria Edna Rubio Iñigo, Doc. Aida Ortega Alcantara Dianela, Mr. Prince Lim Subion, and Atty. Michael Eric Soriano Onquit as the Chief Adjudicator," Tayo shared.

The teams that advanced in the semi-final round were Team D'Conquerors composed of John Florence Tugay, Ara Isabel Aballa, Ronalie Sumabat and Shiela Mae Taupa; Team Take De Bait of Arjim G. Ruiz, Crystal Jayden Taperla, Wilson T. Cabrera Jr., and Louela Reyes; Team Wisdom Diggers of Reden T. Uchi, Erika Rose T. Cabrera, Herlven Devine V. Tabo, and Rose Ann E. Manlangit.

Advancing also in the semis was Team Callidus of Kyle Robles, Miguel Urbano Kyla Monique De Lara, and Paola Alvarez who were the first to advance in the round.

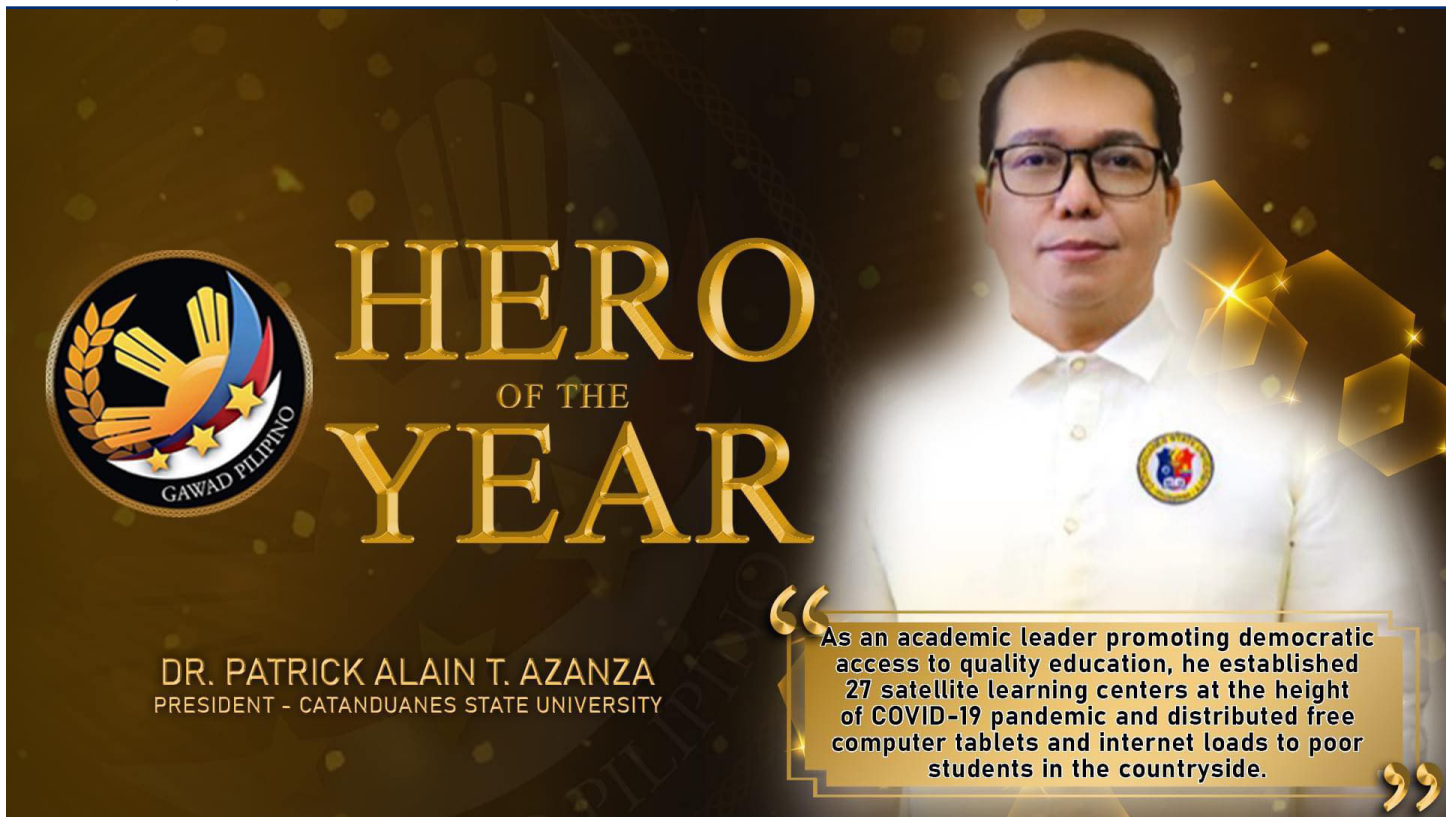

"The semi-final round was held on November 23, 2022, in the same venue. The first match was won by Team D'Conquerors over Team Take De Bait. In the second match between Team Wisdom Diggers and Team Callidus, Team Wisdom Diggers got the spot for the grand finals to compete with Team D'Conquerors. The adjudication core for the semi-final round consists of Doc. Maria Edna Rubio Iñigo, Atty. Michael Angelo Marquez, and Atty. Gilbert T. Suarez," Tayo said.

In the finals, team Wisdom Diggers emerged as champion after outwitting the team D'Conquerors in the proposition "Let it be resolved that the price of rice per kilo be lowered to twenty pesos."

Reden T. Uchi and Herlven Divine Tabo won the best debater and best speaker award, respectively and their team bagged the winner-take-all prize of P50,000.00 and the champion trophy.

The panel of adjudicators were Atty. Michael Eric Soriano Onquit, Atty. Gilbert T. Suarez, Atty. Gregorio Sarmiento Jr., Atty. Michael Angelo Marquez, Doc. Maria Edna Rubio Iñigo, Doc., Aida Ortega Alcantara Dianela, Prof. Ian V. Aranel, and Pros. Carlo T. Valeza as the Chief Adjudicator.

"I believe that debating is an activity that the youth should participate in. It is at this stage that the youth should be more critical and involved in all of the society's pressing issues," Tayo concluded.

CatSU prexy to receive 2022 Hero of the Year award from Gawad Pilipino

by Francis John B. Templonuevo

Catanduanes State University SUC President III Dr. Patrick Alain T. Azanza will receive Hero of the Year award from Gawad Pilipino this coming December 27, 2022 at Novotel Hotel in Araneta Center, Cubao, Quezon City.

“As an academic leader promoting democratic access to quality education, he established 2 satellite learning centers at the height of COVID-19 pandemic and distributed free computer tablets and internet loads to poor students in the countryside,” the Gawad Pilipino organization cited on Dr. Azanza’s qualification and merit.

Since the start of his presidency at CatSU a year ago, Dr. Azanza initiated campaigns to help the poor but deserving students to have access in the online world by giving cellphone loads and tablets. More than 1000 students already received tablets and almost 5000 students received regular loads.

In the award given to “Natatanging Pilipino sa Iba’t Ibang Larangan,” Dr. Azanza will be joined by fellow Catandunganon Hon. Jose “Bong” Teves, Jr. of the TGP Partylist, and Prof. John Cyrus B. Francis, Director of Student Support Services of CatSU.

Other notable awardees are Senator Christopher Lawrence “Bong” Go, the maestro, Ryan Cayabyab and celebrities like Bela Padilla, Angel Locsin, Matteo Guidicelli, Maine Mendoza, and Vice Ganda.

“Humbled to be recognized by Gawad Pilipino along with these well-known public servants and socio-civic workers of the nation,” Dr. Azanza shared in his Facebook account.

Research and Development Services (RDS) Updates

(From Catanduanes State University Research and Development Services Page)

TEC evaluates twenty-five (25) research proposals presented last November 16, 2022, at the RDS Prime Building.

The proposals were classified according to nature and specialization, and faculty experts/researchers from the Technical Evaluation Committee reviewed each proposal. Each sub-groups were selected based on the expertise needed to evaluate the soundness of the study. The TEC scrutinized particularly the Statement of the Problems/Objectives, scope, design, methodology, budgetary requirements, duration, FTE units, and research instrument.

Based on nature, 10 proposals belong to the non-S&T (Science and Technology) category while 15 belong to the S&T category. Moreover, the number of proposals based on specialization were: Education - 4, Social Science and Humanities -5, Business and Economics -1, Natural Sciences/Agriculture - 5, Health and Nutrition Sciences - 2, and Engineering and Technology-7.

After all approved studies were revised, the RDS recommends the proposals to the University Research and Extension Council (UREC), the final Body to approve the studies for contract, which are expected to be implemented on 2nd semester, 2022-2023.

Presentation of Research Proposals and TEC review resumes on November 29, 2022 at the RDS PRIME Building.

To encourage more researchers and meet the targets set for CY 2023, a Special Presentation of Research Proposals and TEC review was scheduled. A total of 11 new research proposals were presented and evaluated by their respective panel of experts from the TEC. The number of new proposals under each category were: Education (3), Social Science and Humanities (2), Engineering and Technology (3), and Health and Nutrition (3).

All proposals are expected to be revised according to the comments and suggestions by the TEC, and submitted to RDS for re-checking and endorsement to the UREC.

CatSU Flower Garden: The University's Flower power

by Caroline I. Vecilles

Born from the President's love of agriculture, the 4-hectare vegetable and flower farm with Known-You-Seeds; and the high-tech indoor three-in-one hydroponics, aquaponics and aeroponics with solar power will launch the what would be known as the Smart Agriculture in the University.

On October 21, 2022, just in time of the CatSU Charter Day celebration, the CatSU Flower Farm was launched and has been opened to the public; one that will also serve as a spot for agricultural/flower propagation demo areas for edu-tourism.

The CatSU Flower Farm is a part of the now approved Knowledge, Innovations, Science and Technology (KIST) Park by the Philippine Economic Zone Authority (PEZA). It is located across the Risen Christ Chapel and is previously the rice field of CatSU along the main highway across the airport.

It has gone through planning stage and with the help of the Known-You Seed Co., Ltd., a professional seed company in Taiwan, engaging in breeding, production, and marketing of F1 hybrid vegetable and flower varieties for more than 40 years, the green hands of our farmers from the College of Agriculture were able to plant the seeds and quickly grew different breed of flowers.

It includes the very popular Celosia, Sunflower, Globe Amaranth, Cosmos, Cockscomb, Zenia and Petunia. It also features the very remarkable handcrafting of the CatSU 1961 arrangement of planted flowers to showcase the roots of the university's foundation.

At first, it was a trial and error experiment on the part of the CAF staff, checking how these flowers, mostly of the breed are popular in other countries, would also adapt to the island's kind of soil. But growing flowers is indeed a kind of art where we as human beings would be taught to understand those full life cycles, how they will play with other creatures, whether insects or animals, including human beings, is really important.

The CatSU flower garden is such a delight to see. In no time at all, it has been a spot for everybody for different occasions of photo shoot and pictorials, from the students, to the employees and everyone from all walks of life. Its beauty is such a natural attraction and day by day when one passes by, definitely serves as an inspiration – indeed, CatSU's Flower Power.

CONGRATULATIONS!
